

Pre-UIL Benchmark Concert Performance
Friday, March 26 at Belton High School

This will be the only time family and friends will get to hear our 2021 UIL Performance, so please invite them to attend this free concert. In order to earn a major grade of 100 for this required performance, students must do all of the following:

- Be Punctual and arrive on time
- Be Prepared with your proper formal concert attire, which includes:
  - Red polo shirt tucked into...
  - Black pants
  - Black belt for gentlemen
  - Black calf-length socks
  - Black dress shoes
- Be Prepared and have all of your music, pencil, and instrument
- Be Disciplined in your behavior and have a positive attitude

You will need to take your instrument home after school on Friday in order to bring it to the high school. Arrive at Belton HS at the PAC Entrance and come in through the double doors. Take a left and walk through the auditorium and directly onto the PAC Stage. Please leave your case inside your parent's vehicle. Below is our schedule for the evening:

Group	Report Time	Warm-Up Time	Performance Time	Sightreading Time/Judge Comments	Dismissal Time
Wind Ensemble	6:15pm	6:30pm	7:00pm	7:15pm	8:00pm

There will be a judge listening to us perform and writing comments. All performing students are required to attend, and this is a required performance for a major grade. The actual UIL Concert and Sightreading Evaluation recording is at the PAC on Wednesday, April 7 during school, and it is closed to the public due to copyright restrictions. We will be sending out more details of this schedule soon. As always, if you have any questions, please let us know.
